

REVELATIONS AFTER THE IDOLS ARE GONE!

February 4, 2008 (4:02am)11/27/6007.

Father Yah, You know the dilemma I am facing. I don't want You to find me lazy and slothful depending on any man to rescue me.

You have given me the means of transportation, is it right for me to dispose of that automobile and be left stranded with no transportation depending on whoever?

Or am I acting out of fear and placing my trust in that automobile and not on You?

I am faced with this decision and I refuse to act out of fear.

I am calling on You for wisdom. I know it has come the time to demonstrate my faith and trust in You. I need clear direction on what to do.

I am not confused. You are establishing my steps. You have commanded me to sit still, work at home through the internet as long as it is there and to trust You for the rest.

Now this situation with the automobile comes up. Is my concern for that automobile lack of trust in You?

I have taken refuge in You and You have given me the assurance that You take care of me. I depend on You not only for transportation but also for where I am going to be transported.

You have brought to my remembrance Psalm 91. For years You have revealed Yourself to me and inscribed that Psalm in my most innards parts.

And after I reviewed that Psalm, I was able to write, "I know that it is against human wisdom to sign away my title to that automobile. But You have given it to me and You can take it away, blessed be Your name."

And that was the solution to my dilemma. I gladly signed my title away and I experienced Your blessed freedom. One more idol out of my way!

That automobile represented independence to me. I was able to go and come as I pleased. I didn't have to depend not even on You to go. I just went.

It was also false security. I owned something of monetary value and that amounts to something in this world.

I attribute my blessing to You and that was enough for me, it pacified my conscience. But certainly it did not please You!

You do not require all of these thanksgiving offerings that we offer unto You. It is a contrite and broken spirit that You are after.

It is the humble spirit who honors and obey Your commandments that You are after. You do not require all of these rituals and words we use to reach You.

We can have all kinds of knowledge of the Scriptures and all kinds of revelations and dreams and such, but it doesn't amount to a heap of beans if we are breaking the lest of Your commandments.

And in this day and age, we are assailed from all directions with all kinds of new doctrines according to the newly acquired knowledge from man.

We are so easily deceived by our reasoning. We have a hard time to understand that You have never changed one iota of Your established ways.

And so we go on, sailing our own boat, each convinced it is the right boat to carry them to eternity and ignoring the messengers You have raised for this time and age.

Thank You for Your faithfulness to keep giving Your messages regardless of how few are heeding them.

February 5, 2008 (4:48am)11/28/6007.

HalleluYah! Blessed be Your name Father Yahuweh! Blessed be the name Yahushua forever! I worship You!

You know my Father everything about me. You know how You are leading and teaching me Your way by Your Ruach haKodesh.

I am humbled by Your faithfulness and wish in my heart to have others come to You and experience Your faithfulness in this special way.

I pray for the ones You have given to me. I pray for Yerusalim. I pray to learn Your language. I pray to be sensitive and obedient to Your voice.

Tears welled up from within me. I know how sad You are to see Your children this late in the age, still rejecting and depicting even Your name.

You are calling us into Your Secret Place, the abode within Yahushua, but, we are slow to answer Your call.

There are so many other concerns. The enemy got us totally immersed in our miserable family problems and we can't even breath so bugged down we are...

All we can think and feel is the misery of broken down relationships. The pounding pain of dysfunctional families.

We hang on for dear life to ideas and beliefs learned in a pagan environment in which we have chosen to remain even when You call us to come out of it.

Where do we, You and I and all Your called ones to warn Your people in these tormented last days, where do we go from here?

I know the time is short, shorter than what most everybody realizes it. I have been knowing this urgency in my spirit since 1986 as You know it.

But, Your people still mocks and jeer at us the same words that they jeered at Your taught ones through the ages.

“Nothing is going to happen to us! Our God knows our heart and he is merciful. I am saved and nothing is going to happen to me!” So they said.

And they go on their own merry go round doing whatever they see fit to worship You without even realizing how they are rejecting You because they are rejecting Your Law, Your commandments, Your Torah...

Then, there is a great majority who are indeed laboring to keep Your Torah, but, even them, they are making their own rules in their labor.

There is only a handful of humble ones Who are letting You have Your way in our lives, and we are reaping the rewards.

Oh but that Your people open their eyes to see Your hand of mercy setting us as an example to them!

That they may see us not as boasting our words but as heralds of Your warnings.

That even if they reject us, let not Your Word return void as it is written.

And Father, a lot of them read the messages and all they can do is correct the grammar and the spelling but they don't seem to get the gist of Your message.

Forgive them Father. You are accomplishing Your work with much regret in Your wrath. It is not Your will that any should perish...

But, Your people are deaf and misappropriate all Your words and promises. They don't understand anything about Your righteousness. They demand Your mercy!

They don't understand much about the reality of Your Being. They have made You to their own image.

And they go on worshipping that image no matter what or who points to them their folly. They insist that their image of You is the real You. How sad!

We have made a cliché out of Your sacred Word. They use all kinds of Scriptures to point out their righteousness.

And they don't realize how immersed they are in their own ways and how they have not yet got the concept of Your Word!

A great majority have searched the Scriptures and have taken Your revelation and come up with their own doctrine of some kind.

O Father! Have mercy upon us, for Your sake, get us out of this predicament!

Somehow, reach to the bottom of the hell we are living in and rescue us!

Only You can do the work and You are willing, nothing is impossible to You and You do hear and answer the prayers of Your consecrated ones. Come Yahushua come!

I commit myself to You once more this day. I am lifting my eyes to You with expectance and delight in You, waiting for Your instructions for this day.

After I finished writing the above entry in my journal, I went to check an email I had just received, it was from a dear sister to whom I have been delivering the message You have given to me for these days.

This email only confirmed what I had just talked to You in my writing of this morning. So, I wrote the answer that You gave to me.

Father, as You are leading me, I will publish these things in my site and print and distribute them as You see fit.

As You know, this sister rejected Your message quoting me all kinds of Scriptures on faith, her excuse for not heeding Your commandments much less Your instructions for these days. So, You inspired me to write the following answer,

Dear one,

I have been through that stage you are in. But, little did I realized that I was breaking Yahuweh's commandments, His instructions to live according to His ways not ours, whether our ways have been acquired by our interpretation of His Word or should they be stubborn ways of the flesh.

My former concept of faith has changed dramatically. For years I took my stand in what I had learned in my daily reading of the Scriptures and what I knew to be communion with the Holy Spirit. I was totally reluctant to any change whatsoever! I stood in the Word! And any mention to me of something that would imply dislocating me from my stand, I rejected.

And the Father let me be, until...September 15, 2007! That day was a Shabbat. The Father, graciously had brought me to at least consider the Torah when I found a minister who was not selling His Word. That was in 2006.

It was then when He began to restore me and bring me back from wandering in my own idea of His Word and His way. As you know He has called me since 1986 when I met you. Because of the tremendous spiritual revelations that I have had, I settled in my ways, thinking that I was still following His ways and that everybody else couldn't tell me any different than what the Ruach had taught me.

I couldn't see that all the while it was my blessed Savior reaching out to me to change and return to trust Him truly like a child trusts his parents. A child doesn't reason things out like an adult does.

I couldn't see Him speaking to me through anybody else other than my own intellect. I confused my intellect for my spirit. I never knew the difference between mind and spirit, though I thought I did, but I never had experienced that difference.

But, the Ruach Yahuweh! He found a way to reach me and that was by letting me see how this sister was proclaiming the message that He had given to me on that year of 1986. I saw it so clear and I repented!

Since then, He has placed in my path key people for these perilous last days in which we are living, people who had done their home work and listened and obeyed Him explicitly and are now receiving His Word of instruction for these days. He has raised the pastors of Jeremiah 3.

Jer 3:14-15 The Scriptures 1998+

(14) "Return, O backsliding children," declares Yahuweh, "for I shall rule over you, and shall take you, one from a city and two from a clan 1, and shall bring you to Tsiyon. Footnote: 1 See Isa. 27:12.

(15) "And I shall give you shepherds according to My heart, and they shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

The whole Bible is about Yahuweh and His people. Yahushua means, Yahuweh saves. When the Scriptures talks about His children they are referring to the lost children of Israel, that's where we belong. We belong to the lost tribes of Israel and that's why we have made a decision to come to Yahushua, because the Father has drawn us. If the Father wouldn't have drawn us, we wouldn't have come. So it is written, John 6:44.

But we, unconsciously, assumed that somehow we have chosen Him because we have some kind of attribute that pleases Him, especially if we are reading the Scriptures and praying and seeking Him on the daily basis.

And we don't realize that in reality He is the One Who has chosen us way back when the whole thing began. That's why He says, I knew you before you were even born. We read these things and we take the attitude, "He knows my heart and He is in control of the world and nothing is going to happen to me, I don't have to do anything but believe Him."

And all the while we don't realize that we are just thinking that we believe Him but, we are not believing Him at all! We are only believing what we have chosen to believe about Him according to our interpretation of the Scriptures, period.

Through the ages the Father has an unchangeable method of speaking to us. He wanted to speak to us directly but, we couldn't stand it. So, He has chosen to talk to us through His selected vessels and it is up to us to either heed His messengers or retort to our own understanding of things like the Israelites have done from the beginning.

At last, by His mercy and grace, I have chosen to listen to His messengers. There are not many of them, but, I know that this sister is one of them and He has placed her in my path for the explicit reason for me to heed Him and His instructions coming through this vessel.

In the depth of my spirit I can confirm everything that He is telling us through this sister. I know in my heart that, should I had continued in the path He had marked for me, I would be proclaiming the exact same things.

So, it is up to you to either receive or reject. But, your blood is not on me because I have obeyed His commandment to tell to the righteous or the unrighteous of their wrong ways.

Eze 3:18-21 The Scriptures 1998+

(18) "When I say to the wrong 1, 'You shall certainly die,' and you have not warned him, nor spoken to warn the wrong from his wrong way, to save his life, that same wrong man shall die in his crookedness, and his blood I require at your hand. Footnote: 1 This passage is almost the same as in 18:20-32 and 33:8-20.

(19) "But if you have warned the wrong and he does not turn from his wrong, nor from his wrong way, he shall die in his crookedness, and you have delivered your being.

(20) "And when a righteous one turns from his righteousness and shall do unrighteousness, when I have put a stumbling-block before him, he shall die. Because you did not warn him, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done is not remembered, and his blood I require at your hand.

(21) "But if you have warned the righteous one that the righteous should not sin, and he did not sin, he shall certainly live because he has been warned, and you have delivered your being."

And so, as He leads I will continue warning His people in the way He has instructed me to do.

Love,

Thia

It is now 3:00pm on this fifth day of February 2008. The 28th day of the 11th month according to Your calendar.

As You are inspiring me, I will now include what You have taught me since 2006 about Your calendar and the weekly Shabbat.

In an email that You inspired me to write to a brother of mine I give the gist of what You have been teaching me about Your calendar and Shabbat since 2006.

Shalom my Brother,

I have taken my time in writing to you because I have been waiting on Father Yah to give me clearance on the matter of the Lunar Shabbat. I was keeping it for a few weeks but the more I did, it just didn't seem right, mainly because I couldn't figure out why would Yahushua kept Shabbat on the same day the Jews were keeping it at the time.

So, I finally went back to researching the matter further. As I read the Lunar literature one thing bother me and that is the fact that they talk a lot about the Babylonian history of time but they don't have any Scriptures to back up the Lunar Shabbat. The Scriptures they quote are the Scriptures that refer to the "moedin" but not the weekly, seventh day Shabbat.

It puzzled me that the few people that I know are hearing from Yah, do keep the Shabbat from sundown Fri to sundown Sat. So, I decided to investigate the matter a little further.

I went to 2006 when I first learnt about the Moon and the Holy Time to keep the feasts. I talked to the brother who first introduced me to the matter. He answered my questions with sound Scriptural answers and I began to see the matter more clearly.

In the meantime, it occurred to me to check EliYah.com and see if he had anything new on it. Sure enough, he has an article which answers all my questions even further. Besides, I can confirm what he is talking about through another Torah teacher who has done extensive research about it. My question, when did Yahushua kept the Shabbat was answered to my satisfaction.

The whole confusion derives because the Scriptures refer to two types of Shabbats, one is the High Shabbat or "moedin" and the other is the weekly Shabbat which Yahuweh established at creation. It was established from the beginning of time, the first day of the week to the seventh day and the seventh day, a day of rest.

Through the centuries a lot has been lost but, Yahuweh has seen that His consecutive weeks remained until today.

Now the reason why it falls on the pagan day Saturday is because the pagans usurped the Hebrew time keeping and claimed it as their own. But the truth of the matter is that we are not worshiping on their day but they are worshiping on our day. Does that make sense to you?

There is a lot of Scripture to back up this truth. You can read the article in <http://www.eliyah.com/lunarsabbath.html>

Also, you can find information in an article by Harold Creech in the Bond Servant's Ministries site. You have to scroll down to find it.

<http://www.bondservantministries.net/>

I am certain now on the right time to worship. Of course we still need to observe the moon to keep track of the first of the month in order to keep the feasts on the right time. A lot of sound Torah teachers are observing the moon to keep the feasts and do not keep the feasts according to the Jewish calendar.

I know that the Jewish calendar is totally wrong because of the man made postponements, they do their own calculations according to their convenience rather than observing the commandment according to the Scriptures.

Love,

Thia

And so, Yahuweh put an end to my confusion and gave me His instructions about His time and His ways, both of them have never changed in spite of man's efforts to do so.

He who has ears let him hear what the Ruach Yahuweh is saying on these most tormented times of confusion in which we live.
