WALK THE HARD ROAD

Today, as I was doing my usual trudging back to my apartment, uphill from town, lugging my groceries, the Father spoke to me again regarding something He had audibly spoken to me around 1992. For this reason, to continue with my task of preparation of the remnant people of Yahuweh and Yahushua in these days, I must write a letter of love to you today to help you prepare for the days ahead, of which of Savior said, "Unless the days be shortened no flesh will be saved".

I've had so many experiences in knowing Father, trusting Him and seeing Him do the miraculous, that many people have asked me, through the years, why I don't write a book. Of course, I could write a big book on what I've seen Him do and heard Him say over the last 55 years. The problem is that I live a miraculous life, and almost every day is something to write about. But, here is a sampling of some things, given here for your edification, exhortation and instruction in righteousness.

As most of the world goes on its merry way, just surviving from one day to the next, an elite group of the agents of Lucifer, the Illumined one, Satan under a disguise of an angel of light, has been working for thousands of years, and especially the last 100 years, and now is in the final lap of their feverish race to the goal line to destroy most of the people off of this planet, so that they can take the world's wealth and establish their own Utopia, with their god Lucifer, enthroned on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. Sound like Sci-fi? No, it is not science fiction--it is reality. Read all about the general plot in the Word of Elohim (God). I've been studying, researching, the details of the plot for many years now, and the parallel kingdom of Lucifer is gathering his elite, trained and sold-out remnant to him, to bring the finishing touches on the great plot. While his select agents are dedicated totally, and his children, in general, are lawless, rebellious, and dedicated to pleasing Lucifer with sin upon sin, the supposed born again children of Yahushua are basking in sun god worship on the beach somewhere without a care in the world regarding what their enemy is up to. Of course, Yahuweh/Yahushua have their elite agents also, totally trained, dedicated and sold out to their purposes.

Study diligently and keep your eyes and ears open, first of all to the voice of Yahushua through the Ruach ha Kodesh (Holy Spirit), and second to the happenings on a world and national level, so that He can show you what is happening revealed in its entirety in the Scriptures. The Scriptures very plainly tell all, you just have to know what you're reading. The Ruach is your Master Teacher.

The Ruach ha Kodesh is the Ruach Yahuweh, omnipresent in the universe. II Corinthians 3:17-18 tells us that the Yahuweh IS the Ruach. Yahushua sent Him, but He is the Ruach that proceeds forth from Yahuweh. (John 14:26; 16:7) He is NOT an "it". Romans 8:14:

“As many as are led by Ruach of Elohim--they are the sons of Elohim”. He is NOT some “force” or “spirit guide” or spooky “ghost”. He is the Father, extended on this earth, to lead us into all Truth, to teach us, and empower us. He speaks to us, gifts us, manifests through us (called “the anointing”), and performs miracles through us, as He did through Yahushua on this earth. He is my dear lifetime Friend! “Its” don’t have personalities nor do they have a sense of humor, get angry, talk, rebuke, or have the ability to scare people to death, nor can they take form (I’ve seen Him), nor can they flood you with power. “Its” cannot comfort. “Its” don’t have a voice, not can they teach, nor tell you things to come. (John 14-16) The Ruach is Yahuweh Himself in His omnipresent form, going “to and fro around the earth watching for those who are obedient to Him”. The Father has never Himself, left the throne, nor will He ever leave the throne. The Ruach is “the finger of Elohim”, who not only wrote the 10 Commandments on the tablets of stone, but Yahushua said “he is the finger of Elohim” who drives out demons from people. (Luke 11:20 with Exodus 31:18) Oh how I love for Him to do that!!! He was the One who led the people of Israel through the wilderness. He was the One they vexed and tempted and angered. He was the One who went forth and slew thousands at the anger of Yahuweh. He was the One, who brought forth the water from the Rock. He is the One, who put the “glitter on the galaxies”, as Job tells us. He is the One who carries out on this earth, the will of the Father. He is the One who draws people to Yahushua, or else they cannot be saved. He is the One who puts up with our sin, and has to deal with our rebellion. He is the One who is wounded by our rejection of Him. He is a “HE”. Don’t insult my Friend, because you don’t know Him, or have intellectually ruled out the book of Acts for yourself personally. There is a religious superior pride in that arrogance. The Ruach dwells with the contrite and broken of heart. Without Him I would never have survived the years of holocaust that Satan put me through. I cringe inside when I hear Him ignorantly called an “it”. He is the One who reveals to me the word of knowledge and the word of wisdom, that has saved my children’s lives. He is the One who has gifted us with the gifts in II Corinthians 12, and sets the “gifts” in order in the assembly of believers. Not man--He is the One. Who ever told you that there was no personal baptism into the Ruach ha Kodesh by Yahushua, or miracles, or tongues, or gifts, or power or anointing by Him after the “apostolic age”? To quote the Brits: Rubbish!

It was the same liar that told you that there is an Old verses a New Testament, grace verses law, and faith verses works, that the church has replaced Israel, and that the Torah was nailed to the cross. It is the same liar that told you that you have no responsibility to keep Father’s Torah. It is the same liar that keeps you from all the good things that Father has for you. It is the same liar that tells you that your celebrations in honor of sun gods are good and clean and should be defended, because you’ve christianized them. (See my 2003 article entitled Joyful Abominations). It is the “father of lies” himself, Satan, through the Emperor Constantine, and the Roman Catholic pagan mixed up Church that he invented. Study!!! The Catholic church substituted baptism (infant baptism also) for the true new birth. They substituted “Confirmation” at age 12, for bar Mitzvah and bas Mitzvah, and the Baptism into the Ruach ha Kodesh. Bar Mitzvah means: “son of the Commandments”. Bas Mitzvah for girls, means: “Daughter of the Commandments”. Constantine’s new religion was based on getting rid of anything Hebrew, the Torah and the Elohim of Israel that wrote it. So, for the new Church, the things of the Ruach were said to have “passed away”. Surprise!! They didn’t pass away. The Ruach--who breathed the Tenach (Genesis to Malachi, English order) through “set-part men of old”--is the same Elohim who still empowers and gifts, as He did in Acts. At the end of this age, He is growing in importance to us, because without His voice (and there are at least 40 ways that He speaks to us) we won’t know what to do, in the chaos and confusion that is coming.

I have known the Ruach since I was 4 years old, when He came and separated me unto Yahuweh in a vision, and in an audible word, and told me “you don’t belong here anymore”. I know now that he took me out of the world system’s clutches, because though I am a normal woman, I have no interest in the fleshly pursuits of the “average” woman. I do love good smelling lotions, perfumes, and beautiful things, but I am not ruled by them. It’s OK to love beautiful things, as long as you can walk away from them without a thought. I’d rather be studying, researching, leaning about Him, preaching and teaching about Him, prophesying, going on prayer assignments, prophetic declaration assignments, traveling, meeting new people by His divine set-up appointments, watching Him work through me to others--praying for people to receive the power of the Ruach, to receive their healing, to receive deliverance from demonic possession, to receive the Ruach’s power, discipling people in the Word, exhorting, edifying and comforting, challenging and encouraging, and of course, bringing people to Him for the new birth. Those things excite me. I’d rather be leading someone to the re-birth and see them set free than any day out doing what “normal” women do idly to pass the time. A day at the mall is a bore compared to that. Even the typical meeting of women in church organizations is so boring because it is usually self-centered, social, and shallow in content. There is usually nothing life changing about it. The Ruach ha Kodesh is the Ruach of the Elohim, Yahuweh, and has quite a fascinating personality. He loves to interact with those who know Him!! He has led me in the hard way, the very, very hard way, to toughen me up and instruct me in wisdom regarding the horrible nightmarish days ahead. And, there have been a few times that I’ve overstepped His grace, and incurred His wrath, which is quite terrifying. I’m sure glad He loves me that much!

In 1992, I was kneeling at a communion service in my church in Ft. Worth, Texas. I had studied, researched, taught a class in end-time prophecy for over 2 years, and had given the latest in the schemes of the one world government, the secret plans of the agents of Lucifer, the scheme of Father’s plans to overtake the schemes of Lucifer, and I had come to a fork in the road. Should I continue on as an information giver, or just stop the class? I was studying for 8 or more hours a day, and things were happening so fast, that I couldn’t keep up with what my Father, Yahuweh, was showing me. As I knelt there in that silence, I was shocked at a booming voice like thunder off my right shoulder, saying to me, “PREPARE MY PEOPLE FOR TABERNACLES”. I knew instantly that voice--it was Father voice through the Ruach. (The Son has a different voice). The Ruach Yahuweh (Spirit of Yahuweh) also boomed like that at Sinai and about scared everyone to death, except Moses. (Exodus 19) (But, the Ruach can also have that “still, small, quiet, sweet voice of Yahushua”, as He teaches and comforts!) I knew what He meant by that “word”. It was time to stop being an information giver, and to start preparing His people for the 1,000-year reign of Messiah Yahushua on this earth. It was time to prepare His people to live under His government--the Torah. It was time to instruct people how to accept the reality of the 3 1/2-years of tribulation, in which only a remnant would survive to see Him coming. Another lie: where does it say, or even allude to in the Scriptures that there is a 7-year tribulation that Christians escape from? It is not in there anywhere. According to the dialogue in Matthew 18:21-25, escapism is of Satan, and man, and not of Elohim! A 3½-year tribulation is spoken of many times. A hoax came from 1830, and is now a multi-billion dollar money-maker, but it is a lie, and those weak ones who are not prepared for suffering, will not be able to withstand the horrors of the days to come.

Paul told Timothy a good word in II Timothy 2:3-5: “Suffer hardship with us as a good soldier of Yahushua Messiah. No one serving as a soldier gets involved in the affairs of this life, in order to please only him who enlisted him as a soldier. And if anyone competes in a game, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules”.

In 1985, when I was coming out of a very terrible and devastating time in my life, He spoke to me: “Go get the Bible, I want to talk to you”. I had not read it for a long time. It opened to Matthew 14:24-32, the passage about Peter walking on the water. He spoke very clearly: “From now on you will walk on the water”. And, so it was. I began anew my life of miracles. It is not easy to walk on the water. We sink a lot until we understand that he won't let us drown. We get scared easy until we learn that He never fails. Learning to trust Him is not easy. One day I was in terrible pain in my back from the base of it to my head, and I had not learned to trust Him for healing. Out loud I told Him that I would love to trust Him, but that it would be easier for me to take painkillers, because “you're too slow”! As I turned to go into the bathroom to get Tylenol, I felt a very hot heat hit my lower back. I “froze in my tracks”. The heat slowly traveled up my spine to my neck. As the heat traveled upward, the pain was totally gone. I stood in that living room numb, saying “I'm sorry Sir; I'm sorry Sir”. That started my walking on the water and my learning to trust Him for healing. He has done many miracles of healing, including delivering me from migraines, and performing a creative miracle on my hips, to turn them outward so that I could walk straight. I was in the grips of a terrible migraine headache, lying on my back in the dark in my bedroom, and my son was commanding the devil off of my head in the living room. All of a sudden, I felt about 5-6 low claws, slide straight out of my head, and heat flooded my body starting at my head and going to my toes. I was totally relieved of pain, and I've never had a migraine since. That was in 1986. I've seen His hand pass through my head and relieve terrible pain in my left eye. These are just a few examples. Learning to trust is difficult, especially when He trusts you out on the water and says "walk". I didn't choose to walk on the water like Peter; Yahushua chose that life for me, and commanded me to walk in it.

Let me give you a little of the present reality I live with, yet I thank Him daily that He has and is using it to prepare me for the days ahead. I have lived with pain of varying degrees in my back, knees, ankles and joints since childhood because of a "double-jointed" flexible condition and weak muscles and ligaments, which do not hold vertebrae in place very well. So, lugging a few things, tomatoes and onions, is difficult for me now that I am almost 60. I must go into town almost every day in order to pay bills, get food, and do other business that I need to do. Unless I walk, my muscles in my back, legs and arms, shoulders and neck, become weak, and I can hardly walk at all. But, back in the late 1970's a chiropractor told me that it wouldn't be long before I would be in a wheelchair because of the deterioration in my back. He was right about the deterioration, however, he was wrong about me. He didn't know that I walked out of his office saying to myself, "I'm not going to be in a wheelchair; I'm going to walk". And, so, though I've had some serious injuries to one of my knees and one of my ankles both in 1999, I am going to keep walking by His grace. I thank Him for every step I take. This, coupled with almost daily spiritual attacks from demonic forces, and from people at times who are under their control, and the knowledge of what is coming, and my watchman role of warning the people, is a continual battle. I've lived most of my life battling with forces, through people, and supernaturally, sent from the evil one, resulting in several nervous breakdowns and near death experiences many times. The traveling He asks me to do, while I love it, is becoming more and more difficult. The poverty conditions I have lived in for most of the last 40 years have taught me to just relax and trust Him--He never ever fails--though He sure does stretch my faith level. Always living financially to catch up, and yet knowing I can't stop my obedience to Him, is also a weight.

But, here's a lesson I learned that I'll pass on to you: In 1999, the year I moved to Jordan, I was in a horrible condition, lying in Uganda in a bed with roaches crawling all over me--sick in body, grieved and depressed in mind and emotion, and having injured my ankle so that I was unable to preach. I was paralyzed with oppression. The enemy about took me under, but a very supernatural intervention by the "cloud of witnesses" (Heb. 12:1-2) and the Apostle Paul lifted me up with such power and strength that I preached from that point on with great anointing and fervor and many were saved. I learned of Paul's mind-set in II Corinthians, in those chapters 4, 6, and the like, when he was pouring out his experiences in following the Lamb. I learned that the life of such a follower of the Lamb is just a life of suffering, and I'd better just get used to it, and learn to praise Him in the midst of it. Suffering is par in this world, for those who are totally out of Lucifer's kingdom and all totally into Elohim's kingdom. Suffering has great reward, because He uses it to prepare us for what is coming in these last days. He gave me Psalm 94:12-13 when I was in Hong Kong in 1994: “Blessed is the man whom You discipline, O Yah, and instruct out of Your Torah, to give him rest from the days of evil, until the pit be dug for the wicked”. That’s it! Submit to the hard training (Read Hebrews 12), and when the evil days come, you will be confident, peaceful, and at rest in your soul.

Peter addresses this life in the most beautiful manner in such statements as in I Peter 4 and 5. I Peter 4:1 says: “Forasmuch then as Messiah has suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of Elohim.” I Peter 4:12: “Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you: but rejoice, inasmuch as you are partakers of Messiah’s sufferings; that, when His glory shall be revealed, you may be glad also with exceeding joy”. What is our focus? Is it on this world, or the world to come? The Christian religion, focuses on what we can get out of God for ourselves. It is self-focused; world-entrenched. That is not the focus of the Word, nor was it the focus of the early believers. Eternity must be our focus.

Paul says, in II Timothy 2:12 and 3:12 tells us that if we don’t suffer with Him, we can’t reign with Him. It tells us that all who live godly in Messiah Yahushua will in fact suffer persecution. What will happen to all those who love comfort and security when they see the slaughter to come, and are so weak and fearful? It will be a horrible tragedy because so few are prepared.

Paul felt strongly to lay out the truth as he visited the believers: Acts 14:22: “Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter the kingdom of Elohim”. Yahushua comes at the “last trump”, “immediately after the tribulation of those days”, because He is using the work of man coupled with Satan to sift the wheat, and gather the chaff and the tares for burning. (Mathew 13) Without entering into His sufferings, and He does suffer greatly over the sin of man, we cannot know His heart, and we cannot know Him. To be a “virgin” Bride is to know Him, and have Him know us (Matthew 25:1-11). This takes time, and takes concentrated effort to really know Him.

When my “hero” Hudson Taylor was called to be an apostle in China, and open up China for the Gospel, he didn’t go to Bible School, or start working to save up his money for a plane ticket, for it was in the 1800’s. He was in England. He went down to the wharf, where the rough fisherman lived. He got himself a little one-room shack. He slept on the floor, ate rice almost exclusively, and toughened himself up in faith in the Father’s ability to provide for Him. He took no provision from a missionary organization, not even from his earthly father. But, he was determined to walk the hard road, because he knew that in China there would be no easy roads. Later on he buried his beloved wife, and several of his children in China because of disease and hardship, but he did not turn back, and the result was the opening of China to the Gospel.

Most people would have given up, but like William Carey in India--a mighty apostolic pioneer and translator of the Word of Elohim, these men toughened themselves up with reality, and did not hide from embracing suffering for the Master's sake. What a different mind-set from the weak, lazy, self-centered modern Church.

Wang Ming Tao, the famous Chinese Pastor in the North of China who spent 23 years in prison for his faith in Communist China, was given a choice early on. The Communists told him that if he would just denounce Jesus and denounce his ministry preaching, that he'd be released from the horrible prison. He was discouraged, and depressed, and in despair. He was not accustomed to the hard road. He signed their written statement and denied his faith in Jesus, promising not to preach again. The Communists gleefully let him go. But, the Ruach ha Kodesh did not let him go. The Ruach ha Kodesh pressed hard on his spirit, and finally Wang went to the authorities and denounced his denial, asking to be put back in prison. Of course, they not so gleefully put him back in prison. He spent 23 years there in hard labor. He won many to the Savior in prison, as did his friend, Samuel Lamb, who was also in prison in the south of China for 20 years.

Samuel, whom I have had the privilege of meeting with many times, to take him the still illegal "counter-revolutionary materials"--Bibles--said that he could have left Hong Kong at one point, but he decided to stay inside Communist China for the sake of the believers. He was arrested, and spent those 20 years in the most deplorable conditions. But, he won many to the Savior in his prison. The Communists could not break the will of either of these two friends. Later Samuel told me that he went to visit his friend Wang, after they both had been released. The Communists considered these two men as the most dangerous men in all of China because they could not be broken down, and they even got stronger in their faith under the most horrible torture and suffering. When Samuel got back to his church, he found out that his wife had died while he was in prison, and his church had been scattered. More suffering! But, when he met with Wang, they had a good laugh at being called "the most dangerous men in China". Samuel is still alive. Several years back, the Communists, who still have him under house arrest, with a police station at the base of his 2--story family house, took all of his Bibles, teaching materials, and any other Christian materials, and threatened Samuel and his congregation with arrest and prison if they didn't stop preaching. His church had grown to 400 after he got out of prison, but he laughed when he told me that after this threat, the church jumped to 1,600 coming each week openly. Now, can you imagine, this man is under house arrest! When he'd say "goodbye" to me, he would have to stand in the entrance door of his house, and could not come out into the street. He is subject to constant threats and harassment. He sleeps on a little cot in the back room on the 3rd floor of his family house, along a very busy alleyway in GuangZhou (ancient Canton). He conducts 2-3 services on Sunday, and has prayer meetings and other meetings during the week. Two blind people, a man and a woman, sort through materials by feeling them, and organize things in the church. A young girl copies Samuel's sermons with an ink pen on small pieces of paper for reprinting. The youth are warned to either stop coming to Samuel's church or lose their right to their schooling, college, and good jobs. Yet, they won't stop coming! This one blind woman, who was once a schoolteacher, must have suffered terribly under Mao, who considered schoolteachers only good for hard labor or death. As she joyfully smiled, she told me that she came daily there, to pray for Brother Lamb. Pastor Lamb has hosted the astronaut Jim Irwin, heads of State from America, and even Billy Graham. So, because he has clout with the West, they watch him from their station below his house. He says that the Communists have forbidden him to preach on the books of Daniel and Revelation, as they forbid all preachers. The Communists, however, told him that he could not stand to preach. But, if he sat, they wouldn't regard that as preaching. So, he sits and preaches on Daniel and Revelation. He is one of the most joyful people I've ever met.

Brother David, who worked with Brother Andrew of Open Doors, wrote a book called God's Smuggler to China (Bible smuggling of course). In it he writes about meeting with Wang Ming Tao. He also wrote the little book: "Walking the Hard Road", which is from his interviews and a sermon by Wang. Wang said that it was best to always choose the hard road, because that toughened him up, and he grew in faith, grace, and wisdom in that prison.

Aunty Alice! I can still see her smiling face in the pictures I was shown of her. She was just a little Chinese lady who loved to witness and preach the Gospel, carrying her well-worn Bible as she walked from village to village. She was arrested as dangerous to the Communist revolution. In prison, she was given the task of cleaning the filthy toilets in the jail cells--floor toilets. As she would scrub the toilets, she'd preach to those in the cells. She won many to the Savior. When she finished her job in a section of the prison, the guards tried to change her job. She asked them if they would put her into another section of the prison so that she could continue to clean toilets. Ha!! They thought she was crazy but they granted her request and she continued to win souls to the Savior. This is the mind-set of the persecuted church in over 40 countries today. Will you write to either the Voice of the Martyrs or to Open Doors with Brother Andrew, and get their materials on the persecuted church? Involvement with these people, in prayer, in writing to them in prison, in teaching others about them, will strengthen and change your life! In these days you will either chose the hard road, or were thrust onto it.

When these persecuted Chinese come out of prison, most of these people will not talk about their sufferings, but consider it their schooling in faith. They have told the people of the West: "we only want to talk about Jesus".

Oh how I loved meeting people from the "underground church" of China!! I "smuggled" the "counter revolutionary materials" into them over 40 times in 2 years. Upon being stopped by the border police at one point, and my Bibles taken from me, I asked the man, who spoke quite good English, "I thought you had freedom of religion in China?" He said, “Oh we do, but that has nothing to do with Bibles; Bibles are counter revolutionary materials”. Yes, El’s Word is definitely against the Communist revolution! These persecuted Chinese are the most wonderful people, smiles on their faces, but knowing that they could be taken to prison at any time for their faith. Oh my... what I have learned from the persecuted church!!!

“Endure to the end”--“patience of the saints”--“overcomers” who “love not their lives to the death”--are these words so horribly repugnant to the imaginary “free world”? I heard of a Pastor in Texas, recently, who preached on Revelation 12:11, but did not speak on the last line. A friend of mine asked him why. He said, “it might frighten my congregation”. Isn’t that pitiful and sad, and isn’t it an indicator about the sick, weak, lukewarm comfortable, easy, cheap-grace Christian church in America that will be destroyed, deny Him, apostatize, and fall away to damnation in the days to come? Pastors are too afraid to even let their people know that their brothers and sisters are dying for their faith? Something is terribly wrong with that. Over 20 an hour, right now, on an average, are dying for their faith in over 40 countries in our modern world, many dying horrible deaths.

As I was walking back from town, here in the country of Jordan, where I’ve lived off and on for almost 5 years, Father reminded me of Wang. I was toughening myself up with all that walking. If I don’t walk, I won’t walk. He has also toughened me up over the years, regarding dependency on man. He has removed insecurity and fear of the unknown. I suppose, because in Him, there are no unknowns to frighten me. In my article “Is There No Elohim in Israel”, I give a little more of my life’s experiences in trusting Him. I could write a book just on how He came through when I had no food, was losing my home, or could stand the pain in my head no longer.

I have been forced to depend on Him for literally my very breath. Without Him I would have been dead, a long time ago. I depend on him for every penny I get, for I have no income other than what He sends me. I have had to depend on Him for every step I take, for cooling me off in 120-degree heat, because I have no air conditioner. I asked Him once if I should spend the money to get one, and He said, “I’ll take care of you”. Someone, after that, gave me ceiling fans, and I have learned wisdom about keeping my house cool enough to live in, even in the heat of the Negev Desert in summer. We’re coming into a time when we won’t be able to buy or sell without the scanable, implanted computer chip in our hand or forehead. We are coming into a time when money will be worthless. What will we do, if we don’t know Him? Most comfort-oriented people fall apart if they get too hot or too cold. Here in the Negev it is either too hot or too cold. Let’s think about realities that we will have to face in the next few years--maybe the next few months. All the things that are happening now are in the Word, and are heading for a total fulfillment. He is my refuge, and my total protection. He has given me such a miraculous life in watching Him work when no human could do what He does, that I am safe, secure, and happy as a little child in my Father’s arms. I know we are facing WWII and total nuclear destruction of the entire world, if Yahushua didn’t intervene. I know what is happening and what is about to happen, but I am so content in His arms. I've seen Him multiply food, seen Him bring provision out of no-where, I've had Him heal me of so many things instantly and miraculously--even perform a creative miracle--had Him speak to me, appear to me, take me in His arms when I've been totally mindless with emotion, deliver me from demonic abuse. I've seen the deaf hear and the cripples walk. In obedience to Him, I've seen Him pull off the most incredible things. He never fails!! So, why should I fear anything, but displeasing Him? My life is becoming one huge miracle as I go about obeying Him. He literally is ordering my steps. I can't get used to it--it is too awesome!

What will people do that reject a personal relationship with the Ruach--denying Luke 3:16, and Acts 1:8 as for today? They are cutting themselves off from His ability to communicate from the inside of the re-born temple. The Messianic Scriptures (Matthew to Revelation) were written when there was only one Book of Yahuweh--the Tenach, and only one instruction for working out righteous behavior--the Torah. All the believers knew that only the born-again ones could receive the gift of the Ruach, and all were baptized in the Ruach ha Kodesh either before or after water baptism. Cornelius and family, upon hearing the Gospel, received it so completely, that the Ruach poured out Himself upon them and they spoke in tongues, before they had a chance to even tell Peter that they wanted to receive Yahushua as their Messiah. It surely shocked Peter, and he later told the Council in Jerusalem that Cornelius and family, who were Romans, had received the Ruach as they had, because these Romans spoke in another tongue.

I'll never forget praying for Navajos back in 1993, to receive the Ruach. I had to have a translator to tell me that they were not speaking Navajo, but were speaking in the language from the Ruach. It was so exciting. One of the times when I was in East Africa, and was praying for people to receive the Ruach, an old Christian woman, who had come from way up on a mountain top out of curiosity to see what a white person looked like, and who knew zero English, as she received the Ruach began to shout IN ENGLISH: "I am coming; I am coming soon!" We were all rejoicing.

People who relegate the power of the Ruach, and His manifested presence through His people, are cutting off His teaching, His speaking things to come, His warnings, His instructions, His powerful prayer language, by which we can wage supernatural spiritual warfare, bring down strongholds, foil the enemy, build ourselves up in our spirit, and cut through the lines of the enemy as no other thing can. By intellectually relegating Him to an "it", people are also relegating Him to theology, and not letting Him take them "from glory to glory" as is His work in the believers. (II Corinthians 3:17-18)

There are 26 things that He does in the new birth--26!!! But, not one of them is to empower or to enter into the cleansed temple of the new believer, until He is sought and invited. He is very sensitive. And He is easily grieved and vexed (tormented). "Do not grieve the Ruach ha Kodesh of Elohim, by whom you are sealed until the day of redemption" (Ephesians 4:30). Psalm 63:10 speaks of the wilderness journey: "But, they rebelled, and vexed His Ruach ha Kodesh, therefore, He was turned to be their enemy, and He fought against them”. Who fought against His own people?--Yahuweh.

Who baptizes us into the Ruach? It is Yahushua who Himself baptizes us into the Ruach. At the new birth, the Ruach baptizes us into Yahushua. These are two different baptisms-- II Corinthians 12:13; Luke 3:16.

Choose the hard road!! Lay down your proud, self-righteous theology that you got from people who got their theology from a seminary textbook. After 53 years of knowing Him, being born again, I exhort you to lay aside the musings of men’s opinions, speculations, and human head reasoning without the Ruach ha Kodesh. The Ruach speaks only to and inside the reborn spirit--He never wastes His time talking to your unstable mind and emotions. The Word transforms the mind and emotions, so that they can receive the knowledge that the Ruach wants to impart. At the new birth, the sword of the Word cuts between the soul and the spirit, and the spirit is reborn. The soul must be saved through transforming it by the Word and by the Ruach. “The end of our faith is the saving of the soul”. (I Peter 1:9) The beginning of our faith is the saving of the spirit.

You cannot have “revelation knowledge” without it being placed into your spirit by the Ruach. Impossible!! At best all you can do is read a book that someone wrote, and come to some mental conclusion regarding your question. Most people formulate through their reasoning mind what they believe, based on input from human sources. Why not have your beliefs come directly from the Ruach? The word “baptism” means total immersion--when not only your outside is immersed but also your inside!!

To try to understand the Word without the Ruach is nothing more than a kindergartener trying to understand Chaucer. Without the Ruach you have no anointing. The anointing is the manifested power of the Ruach flowing through a human body to accomplish the impossible!! Where do I come up with these definitions? They come out of my spirit from a lifetime of experience with Him. I remember the day I got tired of my husband’s eye crossing to the center. I grabbed his head and demanded that the eye move to the center and never cross again. I was under the Ruach’s power for the gift (I Corinthians 12:9) of “special” faith. The eye moved to the center and never did cross again. I know what it is like to have Him grip me with this special faith for the miraculous. I’ve seen a man’s leg grow out several inches, so that after years of walking with an “elevator shoe”, he could walk normally again. You can’t learn those things in textbooks or in theological discussions, through opinions or theories from man. You can only enter into the world of the Ruach, the “greater works” that Messiah said we would enter into, by simple faith in what He promised! The word says that they “limited” the Set-Apart One of Israel. (Psalm 78:41) We limit Him by our unbelief!!! He uses the anointed one to change lives and set people free. Many believers have a head full of knowledge, and they couldn’t deliver a demon-possessed fly.

Precious Corrie Ten Boom said, that in the last days, if you are not baptized in the Holy Spirit and speak in your heavenly prayer language that accompanies His entering your temple, you will never make it through the days of tribulation. The prayer language is the Ruach speaking through us in the languages of angels, and sometimes of men for His purposes. He gives us these fluent and beautiful languages to set us free, and to set others free. “Tongues in the meeting of the ecclesia, as a message, must have interpretation, or else it is out of order”. Tongues plus interpretation equal prophecy. There are guidelines for using His gifts in the meeting places of believers. (I Corinthians 14) But, in times of ministry to individuals, the power of the warfare tongue goes forward to cut through the enemies’ lines and to set people free. We cannot prophesy, which is to speak for Yahuweh, without the Ruach. Ezekiel was “filled with the Ruach”. He was born again, and spoke for Yahuweh. Paul says to ask for that gift of prophecy (I Corinthians 14:1). If we cannot discern good from evil--we will fall for deception. One of the gifts of the Ruach is “discernment of spirits” to discern between the workings of Yahuweh, man or Satan. (I Corinthians 12:10) Prophecy is for every believer, if they submit to the word of Yahuweh. But, the Office of Prophet carries with it the same guidelines as the Prophets of Yahuweh in the Tenach, and it takes training from childhood, and total submission to Yahuweh, or else the judgment is horrific. False prophets prophesy out of their own heads. By the Ruach, we can discern who is prophesying by the Ruach, and who is prophesying from their own head.

Who told you that the Office of the Prophet and the Office of the Apostle was done away with at the death of the Apostle John? That old Liar again! “I am Yahuweh--I change not!! His Word is “forever settled in heaven”!!

In the bush of Tanzania, out in the Serengeti Plain, I saw the power of the Ruach setting people free from manifesting demons, as the Ruach fell on the people. Demons were driving people into the streets to do all manner of destruction, but the power of the Ruach was bringing them back totally delivered--like with the man at Gadera--in their right minds. One woman just collapsed in my arms with joy. One demon-possessed man was coming at me to attack me, and 4 Pastors couldn’t hold him back. I was backed into a row of benches. I just kept commanding that demon to let him go, and the man collapsed. He came up totally delivered, and was able to receive the Ruach ha Kodesh. His spirit had been born again, but he had come out of witchcraft, and the demons would not loosen their hold on his body and mind. If you have not seen the power of the Ruach in operation through a believing believer, then you are stunted in your Christian life, and need to stop your intellectual musings and mockery of these things, and get out into the bush of Africa, or India, or Asia, or New Guinea, and learn what the power that came down on Sinai is all about!!!

Toughen yourself up. Soon you will be under world martial law, and the policing forces will have no mercy.

Those who adhere to the Commandments of Yahuweh and believe in Messiah, love Israel, and call Elohim by His correct names, will be hated by all unbelievers on the earth, as well as by those that call themselves Christian. If you continue on with a soft, weak, easy lifestyle, living for your own comfort and security, you will die, or you will deny the Messiah to save your skin. Your children will be ripped away from you, and like the believers in Sudan, you may see them killed horribly before your eyes.

The US has been cut off, purposely, by the world news media, from the greater realities of what is going on in this earth. While the US was fed the O.J. Simpson trial day in and day out for a year, millions of believers were literally slaughtered in the hideous ways in Sudan and Indonesia. I find that so many America Christians are so weak, that when I show them pictures of their brothers and sisters who are being tortured, put in horrible prisons and unmercifully beaten beyond recognition, and killed, that they won't look at the pictures. Yet, it says of Yahushua that He was so disfigured before He was nailed, hands over His head, to the pole, stake, tree, that He was almost unrecognizable. We have artsy pictures of Jesus dramatically and sweetly hanging on an ancient pagan fertility symbol (called "the cross") with a little blood on his head, and feel so sorry for poor Jesus. That's not the way it was. Even the word in the Greek for "cross" says that it was a pole--a straight up and down stake. And yet we sing the old hymn this way: Jesus bore it all, all to us He owes. At least that's how we live. No--Yahushua bore it all, all to Yahushua we owe".

We have become such a weak, mind-programmed society, that all most people in the free world want to do is save their skin, and watch another sit-com. We have given away almost all rights to a Luciferian-controlled government, and now we wait mindlessly for marshal law to haul any dissidents, anyone suspect of disagreeing with the one-world government, into concentration camps, ovens, gas chambers and onto guillotines.

In the US? Yes! One world government? Yes--declared openly on Europe's CNN and BBC, on TV and radio, from the White House, in May of 1999, (I saw it myself on CNN TV with several others). Yet the US didn't get the news. This new government, with all of its one world government agencies, is led by the G-8 nations (the super-rich money elite), NATO and headed by the Pres. of the US and Prime Minister of England--yes, again, openly declared and announced on TV and radio. Since then, many radical changes have taken place, and most of the people in the US could tell you more about the latest episode of Law and Order, or The Days of Our Lives. Instead of knowing the Ruach ha Kodesh intimately, hearing from Him daily, knowing the Word thoroughly, and being involved in spreading truth, most Christians in America would rather take in a movie. They depend on the church to teach them, and most Pastors don't know as much as their diligent parishioners.

Why do I keep hitting on American Christianity? I love America! I love America's people! But, I am being very objective. America's type of Christianity is a totally different breed of religion than is in any other part of the world. I've been to many countries of the world and met in churches, in homes of believers, and seen their brand of Christianity for myself. America's brand has a theology of greed, self-centeredness, and selfishness that is unprecedented anywhere else in the world. It's a gospel of "how do I feel about it?", "what's my opinion?", "what can I get out of it for myself"? Wherever this type of religious teaching comes into another country, it literally destroys the simple faith of the true believer, and sets them on a lustful course to get to America and its white-skinned money, to become rich, popular, to accumulate possessions, to be famous and get on TV. They just want in “on the haul”. If big flashy ministries are hauling in the millions, they figure, why not them? I have watched it literally turn simple, beautiful believers, so pure of heart and so dedicated to Him in innocence and genuine love, into monsters of greed, arrogance, pride, selfish ambition--asking for money to get things they never needed before. Instead of simple modest clothing, all of a sudden they need an American preacher’s suit, an American hairstyle, men’s cologne, and all sorts of sound equipment, musical instruments, and loud speakers. The women ministers, all of a sudden, have to have their hair done, manicures, and flashy clothes. Before, they’d go into the jungles barefoot, but now they have to have sound equipment or they can’t go preach the Gospel. Sweet pure-of-heart people, turned into haughty peacocks, proud and smug, and loathing anything that they were before, all wanting to look like the rich preachers Christian television from America. Horrible!!! Do you know that the very poorest of the poor nations that receive Christian television programming, receive exactly the same programming that we see in America? I was horrified to see that in Africa. Here are million-dollar TV sets, with chandeliers and gold trimming, all being paraded before people who barely have enough to eat. Are you sending your hard-earned money for such horror? I was told, in Uganda, that the Pastors will not let their children watch Christian TV, because it is “immoral”. They are referring to the music videos, with the young people dressed in sexy clothes, and moving in vulgarities all the while singing about Jesus on the cross. It is hideous!! Even the children’s programming on Christian TV is unacceptable to the African believers, because it shows dating, boys and girls holding hands and kissing before marriage. Dating is not a part of most third world beliefs, especially among the Christians. Is this an eye-opener to some of you? I hope so!

Father’s anger is over this Protestant daughter of the Roman whore church. The gospel that America is preaching and exporting to other countries, is so watered down that it is leaving out the key element of repentance, because big-name preachers want big numbers of “salvations” in their crusades, because they’ve learned that the bigger the numbers, and the flashier the pictures, the more money the Americans are willing to give to these “poor Africans, poor Indians, poor Asians” through their ministry.

So many people are horrified at my bold information--Nuclear holocaust is coming, and there is only one area of safety on the earth? And its where? Most would rather stay in a place under judgment than to go to where He’s zoned off a “safe place” (Daniel 11:41). I live in the safe zone--I see all being fulfilled up close, and so my bold information is right information. I want to shock people out of their complacency and into reality, so that at least they’ll know what is coming, whether they take my warnings from the Father or not. Noah tried for 120 years to get people to prepare for a flood. It had never rained on the earth, and if I’m right, and the Jordan tourist books are right, Noah built the ark east of the Jordan, somewhere in the plains of Moab, near the Dead Sea of today. Also, that area was once, most likely, the Garden of Eden. That beautiful valley, not a dead sea, was once called “like the garden of Elohim”. It was watered by mist coming up from the ground. Why would God make water fall out of the sky, the world’s people mocked? At the end of 120 years, only Noah was still hearing from Elohim. The prophets warned Israel and Judah over and over, but it seems that only the prophets believed His words.

In these days, He is raising up a company of prophets--true ones, people that don’t have to be waited on and coddled. There are two literal male witnesses (Revelation 11), but these two also represent a company of witnesses, each with either the characteristics of Elijah or Moses. They have been trained not to conform to this world. They are set-apart unto Yahuweh, and all that matters is “following the Lamb” wherever He goes. They only listen to His voice, and obey Him--not man, not their flesh--they are controlled by the Ruach. They live very simple pilgrim lives. Beware of being content with your surroundings--your world is about to be turned upside down! The security of His remnant people is in Him alone. They, like Moses, have been taken from the pleasures of Egypt, and into the wilderness, and trained in absolute trust and obedience.

There will be multitudes of martyrs in the days to come. Already in the 20th century there were more martyrs than in all the previous centuries of Christianity combined. There will be multitudes that will deny Yahushua/Jesus because they believed in a free ride--a Santa--and did not know the Jewish Rabbi, Messiah Yahushua, nor did they walk in His Kingdom laws and commandments. He has been, and still is for a little longer, marking a remnant people, to preserve until His coming. But, the qualifications are the highest—namely to be sold out completely to Him, holding nothing back. He said, “Unless you forsake all, you cannot be My disciple”. (Read Luke 14:25-33) The marked one--with the Bridal mind and heart--would rather study the Word than eat. They’d rather talk about Him, than anything else when in the presence of others. The Bride has a Bride’s mind and heart, totally caught up with her Bridegroom and what hurts Him, what brings Him joy, what pleases Him, what interests Him, and to be totally involved in what His agenda is. She has zero agenda of her own, except to join with His agenda, plans and purposes. Her thoughts are on His coming, and she cries with the Ruach, “Come Yahushua, Come!”

Practical advice: walk to the store and lug your groceries back in little bits. Don’t use conveniences--work the old fashioned way. Instead of doing your laundry in a machine, do it by hand--yes, even the sheets. Do anything you can to deny yourself and toughen yourself up. Try sleeping on the floor and eating rice for a few days. Prepare yourself for the reality of losing everything in the days ahead. My arms are so much stronger because I rinse my clothes out in the sink. I’ve learned to deny myself, and I am the stronger for it. Radically cut out everything that is poisoning your mind, soul and spirit, and body. Change you diet--in food, and in entertainment. Don’t watch those hideous tools of the devil (TV primarily), programming your mind and the mind of your children to accept anti-messiah’s belief-system. Even Christian TV is now being run by those who agreed to, and who actually signed an agreement in 1995 with the Pope to unite once again with what Revelation 17 calls “the great whore”, even denying openly the Protestant reformation.

This major turn of events in 1995 clearly marks the turning of the religion of organized Christianity into Lucifer's camp 100%. Of course, those programming, time-wasting devices include, first of all TV, then radio, books, movies, videos, video games, strolling through the mall "shopping for bargains" you don't need, useless sports events, or anything--and I mean anything--unless it fully honors, exalts and promotes the Kingdom of Yahuweh and Yahushua. Cut out those "fast foods" and "snacks" that are destroying your body. Check out the reality of GM foods, for they are designed to starve you and destroy your body. Don't take in anything into your body, or give anything into your children's bodies, that Father does not tell you is all right. They are developing vaccines from aborted fetuses--the smallpox vaccine is made from stem cells of aborted fetuses. It is another form of cannibalism. Check things out for yourself, and Father will be sure to get you correct information, if you are determined to only do what He says for you to do. Yahushua tells us that He only did what His Father said to do, and only said what His Father told Him to say. Get used to that lifestyle, because look at the reality you may be facing very soon: Luke 12:11-12. The good is often the enemy of the best, and there are a lot of good causes out there, that take you away from time spent in worship, prayer and Word study. Radically go through every aspect of your life, and readjust it to what He says in the Torah, and what He personally says to you.

What American Christians call "OK" or "nice" or "family-oriented", many times are pagan, and evil to the core, and a part of Lucifer's world. Walt Disney was a practicing Wicca witch. Don't allow your children to be exposed to demonic things that Disney produces. Almost all children's programming are teaching them witchcraft, humanism, shocking their spirits, lying to them, teaching them the supernatural powers of the underworld, and at best teaching them New Age doctrine (the Gnostic teachings of Lucifer--from "the tree of the knowledge of good and evil").

If we were once fools, now being enlightened by His Truth, we must abandon our deceptions and adjust radically and immediately to His plumb-line. If you absolutely have to put your children into Lucifer's public school system, then daily monitor what they are learning, and counter it with teaching in the Word—primarily the good teachings of our loving Father in Torah (read your instruction Manuel as a parent in Deuteronomy 6 and the book of Proverbs). The textbook to teach children reading in early America was the Bible. How far we have fallen!! In fact, when the founders of our country were making the laws for our new Republic, the question arose, "should we make English or Hebrew the language of America"? Christmas was outlawed because it was pagan, and the standards of our government were based on the Torah! Now, our government is openly rejecting the foundation of the Torah, and that is one of the 3 reasons why Father's wrath is kindled against any nation. Judgment is coming to all nations for rejecting His Torah and for rejecting Him.

I've learned a lot from the "third world's people". In Africa, I've learned how to live happily in a mud hut. I've learned that spreading cow dung on the floor, makes a nice hard surface, and easy to sweep. I've learned the benefits of broad-leafed trees, when using the "pit latrines" where TP is non-existent. I've learned the beauty of star-lit nights, and kerosene lanterns. I've learned the art of just sitting and waiting, talking and enjoying the fresh air. I've learned how to walk for miles on tiny paths, and call it "just over there". I learned that talking about the Bible is the most important talk, and praying for a sick grandmother with malaria is a priceless privilege.

From the Navajos, I've learned that life in a mud and stick "hogan" is peaceful and cozy, and you get to camp all the time--eat outside, and do almost everything outside. Even better than that, like the Bedouins of Jordan and southern Israel, when it gets cold you go into the valley and stay in your tent, but when it gets hot, you take the sheep and goats and go into the high country, and sleep out under the stars, with a blanket spread over the bushes. I learned the importance of just sitting and talking, and watching the lambs jump and play.

In Mongolia, I learned how they lived happily in a skin-lined tent, in bitter cold winters. The Mongolians are some of the happiest people in the world. They are the ancestors of the Navajos, and in the Gobi desert, they also live in hogans. I learned that the Mongolian students are so childlike, and even in their early 20's they hang their heads and giggle with any mention of marriage, yet they are a brilliant people, and long so much for meaning in life. I learned about the oppression of Communism, and even though they were told there was no God and no eternal life, that the one thing they wanted more than anything was to know God and to have eternal life.

In Russia, I learned about sharing, and how many people can live together in a tiny apartment, with rusting pipes, and cold drafts in the winter, and enjoy each other. In Russia, in December, I've learned what it is like to live a "normal" life with the temperature at 30 degrees below freezing, and how walking to an "underground" meeting of Chinese in a cold warehouse can be a most warming and happy experience. I've learned what it was like to walk with a cane, knee is extreme pain, over the frozen snow, to go to a distant town, where once the Jews were sent as prisoners of the Russian government, and find Jews who wanted so desperately to return to Israel. Oh my...what a joy, in that frozen land to meet with Jews in their homes, many who were preparing to make Aliyah, and return home. I was there to help them. Many of them were in the German holocaust, and then after escaping from Germany and returning to Russia, they went through a Russian holocaust. I learned that Russians lived in some of the most squalid conditions, and Medical Doctors, even Specialists, lived on $20.00 a month, and teachers lived on $12.00 a month. I learned that farmers were using 1940's farm equipment. Yet, in wooden homes of many believers, with out-door toilets and wood fire stoves, they would sing and praise the Father with such joy from the heart--they loved Him so much!

I've learned from the Chinese how they live happily in shacks. Even under Communism and extreme poverty, they return your smile with the most beautiful big smiles. These believers risk their lives to share the Gospel under the most horrendous conditions.

In Africa, I've been back in the bush. These mud hut dwellers have one purpose--win the lost to Jesus, and disciple them in the Word. I've heard them tell of walking for 12 hours into areas controlled by witchdoctors, with screaming cougars, and panthers, snakes and scorpions. Upon arriving at villages in the north of Tanzania, they begin to preach, until a very furious witchdoctor stops them and demands a sign that their God is real. Upon finding two blind people, the witchdoctor says, "either your God heal them, or I'll kill you". Well, as these bold ones told me, Jesus healed them, and the whole village became believers, including the witchdoctor. But, why would these little barefoot ones, have to walk 12 hours, through such dangerous territory into such hostile areas. Why couldn't the churches in Mwanza come and take their vehicles, sound equipment, keyboards, and stages, to hold a crusade out in these 300 villages with no Gospel? Answer: They are too content to stay in their churches in Mwanza. They told me that they were too afraid of the witchdoctors! They had gotten white man's money, built their churches, gotten white man's equipment under the guise of spreading the gospel, and stayed in their cities in ease and comfort, to preach to each other. Ease and comfort produces fear of losing ease and comfort. Anything you fear losing is your god!

A pastor from India wrote me about the drowning of his 11-year old son in a strong river. The Pastor went to where his son was drowned, and began to preach the gospel at his funeral. He went back again and again to the river bank where his son was last seen alive. Soon many of the fishermen became believers, and a church was started. I've seen that pattern over and over with the Africans when they lose a loved one.

It is these people who will rule and reign with Messiah Yahushua. He is training the ones who will rule and reign with Him, as He was trained--in suffering, as a bonds slave. He learned obedience through suffering.

If you are an American believer or westernized believer, who is soft, weak, scared, timid, fearful of anything outside your world you've created for yourself for security, you are going to have to force yourself to get out of your security that is based on man and circumstances. Live unsettled! "Here on earth, we have no continuing city, but we look for the one coming". (Hebrews 13:14) We have to live with eternity in mind, because eternity is very near now. All of our working so hard to build a zone of security for ourselves, and for our families, is just an illusion. It is like building a house of straw, especially in these days. Anything can topple that house of straw--and it will. He has been using the world community, the US, the EU, the UN, to prepare a geographic place of safety and hiding for His marked ones during the 3 ½ years of tribulation. They think it is for themselves--Wow--Are they ever going to be surprised!

Read carefully Isaiah chapters 2, 13 and 24, Ezekiel 7, Zephaniah chapters 1-2; II Peter 3, Zechariah 12-14; Matthew 24, Mark 13, Luke 21, Revelation 6 (we are already in the first 5 seals). And while you're at it, read all the Prophets, II Peter, Jude, Revelation and the Psalms, for the Psalms are very prophetic and also give us comfort and instruction. There are over 200 passages in the Scriptures about this day, because all of Scripture is focused on this day. He comes for a pure Bride. “The pure in heart will see Elohim”. Your eternal salvation, position in the 1,000 kingdom, and the eternal position when Father comes, will be determined by how fully you give your live over for His purposes now.

This exhortation is part of a series of preparation messages that I have been giving for several years, through prophetic utterance, and preaching, teaching and writing--all at His instruction. They are not my opinions, nor my agenda, nor my theories or speculations. They are from Yahuweh. The time is so short now, that your building of your relationship with Him and your toughening up your spiritual muscles must be your priority.

He commands us to come out of Babel. (Revelation 18:4; Jeremiah 51:45). Babel (confusion) is the world system of politics and economy and trade (the money system). Babel is also represented by a country. Read carefully: Jeremiah 50 and 51, Isaiah 47 and Revelation 18. In Revelation 18, we also see that “Babel” is also represented by a world-famous economic port. This country has a “space program”. This country is the embodiment of the tower of Babel, and all that Nimrod wanted to accomplish. It is a country--which is the most powerful country in the world, and also the wealthiest country in the world. It is destroyed in these days in which we live. Father has given many prophecies and sent many prophets to warn this country of its judgment in the last 100 years. Unfortunately, that country is America--the leader of the present one world government.

Babel is also the religious system. Every religion is part of Babel. Yahuweh and Yahushua are not a religion and are not represented by any religion. They rule over a Kingdom, and have a governmental structure and Law (Torah), which runs the Kingdom. Religion is all man-made. He has nothing to do with any of it! We must come out of all the systems of man, or be caught in Yahuweh’s judgment, when Yahushua comes with His wrath. Many are actually taking Yahuweh’s plea to flee out of Babel literally, and moving out of America into other countries, many into Israel, and some into Jordan. Soon the whole world will be one giant refugee camp, with multi-millions-billions escaping war, famine, radiation, and nuclear holocaust.

My precious brothers and sisters: Be forewarned!

Your sister
